/++++/++++/++++/++++/

I took a walk by the sea
Nothing else, just for me
Yesterday was a long, long time ago
There's a man and he's sighing
It's all he's got to keep from crying
His shattered dreams.
Have been worn down by life

A E
And I wonder now
A G#m E
How a man gets so far down
A E
Where's the pride and the glory
A B
Where's the pot of gold

E G#m A
and I...I.....(break)
E F#m A G#m E F#m A G#m
I look to the children Oooooeeooooeooo

I took a walk by the sea
I'd forgotten what it meant to me
Some things we should carry from the past
There's a boy and he's singin'
And in the wind his words are ringin'
His innocence it is buried in us all

Now I look and see
That boy inside of me
May have seen a storm or two
But the dream is alive and I...I

I look to the children, Oooooeeooooeooo
I look to the children, Oooooeeooooeooo

guitar solo 4 x

And I look around
So many so far down
Just search inside yourself
But the dreams alive

and I...I
I look to the children, Oooooeeooooeooo
I look to the children, Oooooeeooooeooo

guitar solo
